Insurance
UW-Milwaukee, as a unit of the State of Wisconsin, is protected by Wisconsin Statute sec. 895.46 (1). This coverage protects UW-Milwaukee, its officers, employees and agents, from and against any and all claims, damages, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including legal fees) arising out of any acts or omissions considered within the scope of employment and operations. It is expressly understood, however, that this warrant does not apply to liabilities, losses, charges, costs or expenses caused by or resulting from the acts or omissions of the Facility or any of its officers, employees, agents, or representatives. UWM and Facility will notify each other promptly of any legal claim or action arising in connection with performance under this contract.

UW-Milwaukee is part of the University of Wisconsin System which is self-insured under the State of Wisconsin’s Self-Funded Property and Liability Program (WI statutes 893.82 and 895.46). We can issue to you a Certificate of Coverage, but not a certificate of insurance per se, nor at the amount requested.

Liability coverage includes: Comprehensive General, Public, Negligence, Professional, Malpractice. This protection cannot be canceled, reduced or altered in any manner without legislative action.

If requested by Site, UW-Milwaukee must provide or cause its students to provide to the Site a certificate of insurance evidencing professional liability coverage for its students and instructors. If state law restricts the ability of UW-Milwaukee to provide professional liability coverage for its students and instructors consistent with the obligations of this paragraph, UW-Milwaukee shall provide insurance for its students and instructors to the maximum extent allowed by law.
